Re: the OmniTek patent application

Dear Mr. Spinelli,

Thank you for your FedEx shipment and cover letter that arrived here yesterday.

As it happens, this is within a week of proposal deadline time for certain clients and projects with which I am currently involved. It is something like a tax accountant receiving a package with discretionary timing during the second week of April. Consequently I am unable to attend to the material that you sent just now.

Please be assured that I will turn my attention to this material promptly when my current business deadlines are passed, which will be by the end of next week. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Yours truly,
